

04 EDITORIAL
PHOTO SCENE

Paris Photo: the most important meeting place for photo galleries

06 BOOKS

New photos books by Wayne Lawrence, Brassai and Steve McCurry, as well as the Iranian Living Room project

08 TALKING WITH

Julien Frydman, director of Paris Photo, about photography, its market value and the art of collecting

84 EXHIBITIONS

Faces in the Crowd: Alex Prager loves to be accidentally involved in other people's lives

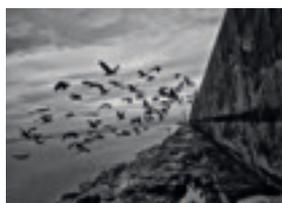

88 READERS' GALLERY

A beautiful back can be charming... LFI readers photograph people from behind

90 MY PICTURE

Photographer Nomi Baumgartl cites Feininger's historic Leica photograph

IMPRINT

Cover Photo: from Cédric Gerbehaye's portfolio (page 12)

The norwegian prison island of Bastøy – rather than bars and security cameras there is plenty of room here for conversations and for change (page 68)

12 | Grey Zone

Mediterranean, melancholic and monochrome – Belgian photographer Cédric Gerbehaye spent a winter in the southern French town of Sète.

28 | Libya's deserted borders

They fight for justice and a better Libya: 138 young men from a non-Arab minority group try to secure the country's very extensive southern border.

40 | Tidal Interplay

The Wadden Sea from a bird's-eye view: Jürgen Wettke photographed this unique landscape from up in the air – the abstract art of nature.

46 | French Kiss

An American in Paris: the French metropolis has become Peter Turnley's second home. A homage to the City of Love.

68 | Crime and Penance

What do criminals need so as to change? On the island of Bastøy, one of the most liberal prisons in the world, inmates live in something very close to freedom.

80 | A Master of Portraiture

Her portraits of authors made her famous, though she also loved to do reportage: Gisèle Freund (1908–2000) – the Grande Dame of photography.

LEICA WORLD

56 LEICA M9/M

The so-called 'Italian Flag Phenomenon' also affects M9 and M users. We talk about the reasons for the complementary colour displacement and what Leica are doing about it.

62 PRINT + PAPER 2

The perfect interplay: optimum combinations and the selection of printers, colours and photo papers

66 TEC NEWS

The viable alternative: The picture processing programme Photodirector Ultra 5 by Cyberlink. Looking forward to spending 2014 with the Leica Calendar by René Burri

M users are also affected by the 'Italian Flag Phenomenon'