

PORTFOLIO

F/STOP

92 | LEICA D-LUX 7

It offers more possibilities than a classic compact camera, while being much more compact than a classic 35mm. It is all about the joys of photography

96 | LEICA ELPRO 52

The versatile close-up lens opens up the world of macro-photography for many M and L mount lenses, as well as the Leica X and X Vario

100 | LEICA M10-D

Tomas van Houtryve took photos from the rooftops of Paris with an M10-D. He enjoyed working without a display, as it reminded him of the concentrated approach of analogue photography

106 | MUSEUM LEICA

The second instalment in our series on remarkable exhibits from the Leica archives is dedicated to the Leica M2, M1 and MD

The new Leica D-Lux 7: now with a higher-resolution sensor and touch display

Emile Dücke: from The Emperor's New Clothes series

Jürgen Schadeberg

6 | LEICA HALL OF FAME

The focus of his comprehensive body of work is on South Africa – and has been for decades. Schadeberg is now being honoured with the Leica Hall of Fame

Charlotte Schmitz

30 | COK GÜZELİM, CÖK GÜZEL

The Balat district of Istanbul tends towards conservatism. A glimpse behind the scenes reveals a dazzling women's world full of dreams and stories

Emile Dücke

46 | THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES

Reconstruction in East: the photographer travelled to the Chechen capital, tirelessly documenting the rapid transformation of its image

Homer Sykes

62 | THE WAY WE WERE

With his very honest social studies, the Canadian photographer sees himself as an archivist of everyday life in his adopted homeland of Britain

Edouard Caupeil

78 | ON THE TRAIL OF JAMES BALDWIN

Caupeil searched for the legacy of the Afro-American author in the southern states of the US, capturing the atmosphere and state of affairs today

LIGHTBOX

110 | LFI.GALLERY

Over 23 000 photographers present more than 300 000 images in the LFI Gallery. In this issue: a Romanian dancer, a night sky in Brittany, and an Indian battle of colours

PHOTO

122 | INTERVIEW

15 years ago, Josefine Raab launched the newcomer challenge gute aussichten. The concept brought a breath of fresh air to the field. We spoke with her

126 | BOOKS

New publications by Demetris Koilalous, Yan Morvan, Ruth Stoltenberg, and Maria Sewcz, as well as an opulent photo book on China by Magnum Photos

128 | EXHIBITIONS

Paolo Pellegrin in Rome, Ansel Adams in Boston, 30 under 30 in Lille, and Feast for the Eyes at Foam in Amsterdam

129 | LEICA GALLERIES

An overview of the program of Leica Galleries around the world, including Thomas Hoepker in Bangkok and Julio Bittencourt in São Paulo

130 | MY PICTURE

Fred Mortagne was encouraged when he came in third in a photo competition

130 | IMPRINT

COVER: Jürgen Schadeberg, Priscilla Mtimkulu making up