F/STOP

76 | LEICA M10-R

Leica are expanding the M family with the M10-R, distinguished by a high-resolution, 40.89 MP sensor. The camera is based on the M10-P and features the same ultra-quiet shutter

82 | SL2 MULTISHOT

Leica have released the first major firmware update for the mirrorless SL2. Its most notable feature is the new multishot mode, facilitated by the camera's suspended sensor

86 | LEICA WELT

On a 6000-kilometre trip through Argentina, Swiss designer Alfredo Häberli used his Leica X2 Paul Smith to document classic cars from the perspective of a true connoisseur

Its exterior is almost identical to that of the M10: the new Leica M10-R

Franck Bohbot: from the Forever Young (2018) series
