

PORTFOLIO

F/STOP

82 | LEICA Q3 PRAXIS

Thomas Bergbold, passionate photographer and Leica Akademie trainer, explored the Lofoten Islands with a pre-series model of the Q3. We share his pictures and hear about his first impressions

92 | LEICA CINE 1

The slide show is back – but with a lot more pizzazz and style. Introducing the Leica Cine 1 short-throw projector for still and moving images, complete with Dolby Atmos sound system

94 | QUO VADIS?

Stronger together: the analogue photography scene is a collaborative hub of creative newcomers and the last remaining stalwarts of the analogue era, such as Colenta, Kodak and Ilford

The Q3 is groundbreaking for Leica. The practical test takes our author to the Lofoten

Marion Péhée travelled to Ethiopia for her reportage

Trent Parke

6 | ECHOES

A look into his new epic publication, Monument, reveals a cross section of three decades of experiences, emotions, understandings and Zeitgeist

Marion Péhée

24 | IRON LIFELINE

A historic train line connects cities in Ethiopia; but how long will it still remain? Marion Péhée has captured the dilapidated railway system in pictures

Borges & Kurth

38 | WE SHARE THE MEAL

Luzie Kurth and Lars Borges share their love of food in a joint project defined by colourful imagery, sensuality and symbolism

Tomeu Coll

50 | SARDINIA'S HEARTLAND

Exploring the Barbagia region in the heart of Sardinia with a Q3: this is where Tomeu Coll discovered the essence of the island – and tried out the new camera

Russell Melcher

66 | STAR REPORTER

An excursion into the Golden Age of Photojournalism, guided by photographer Russell Melcher, who likes to call himself a storyteller

LIGHTBOX

98 | LFI.GALLERY

Over 40 000 photographers present more than 1.5 million pictures. This issue includes reaching for the clouds, a colourful afternoon, and The Little Prince

PHOTO

108 | EXHIBITIONS

Visa pour l'Image; Motohashi Seiichi and Robert Doisneau, Tokyo; National Photographic Portrait Prize, Canberra; Albarán Cabrera, Barcelona

110 | LEICA GALLERIES

Overview of the programme of Leica Galleries worldwide, including Douglas Kirkland in Salzburg and Valentin Goppel in Los Angeles

112 | BOOKS

New publications by Sarah Stacke, Tobias Zielony, Franck Bohbot, Anastasia Samoylova, and the book What We See

114 | MY PICTURE

A profoundly symbolic image: Lorenzo Tugnoli takes an un-sparing look at Beirut, his adopted home of many years

114 | IMPRINT

COVER: Trent Parke, from his book, Monument, © Trent Parke/Magnum Photos